STRATEGIC THINKING

1. Learner®

What Is Learner?

People with strong Learner talents constantly strive to learn and improve. The process of learning is just as important to them as the knowledge they gain. The steady and deliberate journey from ignorance to competence energizes Learners. The thrill of learning new facts, beginning a new subject and mastering an important skill excites people with dominant Learner talents. Learning builds these people’s confidence. Having Learner as a dominant theme does not necessarily motivate someone to become a subject-matter expert or strive for the respect that accompanies earning a professional or academic credential. The outcome of learning is less significant than the “getting there.”

Why Your Learner Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

Learner	Strategic	Ideation	Achiever	Competition

Driven by your talents, you concentrate for extended periods of time. This is one reason why you ultimately master skills and grasp concepts.

Chances are good that you are attracted to difficult and challenging endeavors. You are not inclined to look for the easy way out. You are bold. You take risks. You dare to stretch your mind. You test the limits of your abilities in ways that timid individuals would not attempt.

It’s very likely that you usually choose to associate with people who value yesteryear’s stories, events, feats of daring, and interesting personalities. You demonstrate a need to acquire lots of historic information. This likely leads you to experts who appreciate many of your thought-provoking questions.

Instinctively, you enjoy pondering what you can revise, correct, renovate, upgrade, or relocate. When you are curious about a person, event, topic, project, activity, or idea, you devote much energy and time to studying it.

Because of your strengths, you occasionally bring an upbeat perspective to instruction, training, or tutoring. Maybe you regard education as one of the essential elements of a well-lived life.

How Learner Blends With Your Other Top Five Strengths

LEARNER + STRATEGIC

Your willingness to embrace new experiences or information enhances your ability to generate a wide range of possible options.

LEARNER + IDEATION

Your creative innovation often springs from a willingness to embrace your curiosity and to engage in continuous education.

LEARNER + ACHIEVER

When you're working on a task, you really want to get it done. When you're exposed to something new, you really want to understand it.

LEARNER + COMPETITION

You like contests where you compare your performance with that of others, but you get bored if you never try a new contest.

Apply Your Learner to Succeed

Develop expertise in areas that interest you the most.

- ☐ Regularly study new topics and skills. Challenge yourself to learn about complex ideas, programs or experiences others might not want to explore.
- ☐ Refine how you develop your expertise. For example, you might learn best by beginning a new project; if so, find new tasks or projects to start. Or you might learn best by teaching; if so, find ways to present to others.

STRATEGIC THINKING

2. Strategic®

What Is Strategic?

People with strong Strategic talents can sort through the clutter to find the best route. You can't teach this skill. It is a distinct way of thinking — a unique perspective on the world at large. This outlook allows them to see patterns where others see complexity. Mindful of these patterns, they envision alternative scenarios, always asking, "What if this happened?" This recurring question helps them see, plan and prepare for future situations. They see a way when others assume there is no way. Armed with this strategy, they move forward.

Instinctively, you may be inclined to examine the basic elements of certain types of problems. You might attempt to understand how and why things work or fail to work. These insights might stimulate your thinking. Then you try to generate a few alternative plans. Considering prevailing circumstances, available resources, and time constraints, you might narrow down your options. Perhaps the plan that offers the best chance of solving the problem naturally reveals itself.

Because of your strengths, you can reconfigure factual information or data in ways that reveal trends, raise issues, identify opportunities, or offer solutions. You bring an added dimension to discussions. You make sense out of seemingly unrelated information. You are likely to generate multiple action plans before you choose the best one.

It's very likely that you may be viewed by some people as an innovative and original thinker. Perhaps your ability to generate options causes others to see there is more than one way to attain an objective. Now and then, you help certain individuals select the best alternative after having weighed the pros and cons in light of prevailing circumstances or available resources.

Driven by your talents, you might generate certain types of ideas quickly. Occasionally you draw links between facts, events, people, problems, or solutions. You may present numerous options for consideration. Perhaps your innovative thinking fosters ongoing dialogue between and among associates, committee members, teammates, or classmates.

Chances are good that you characteristically find the right words to express whatever you are thinking. You offer explanations, discuss ideas, give examples, or share stories. You effectively use the spoken word.

How Strategic Blends With Your Other Top Five Strengths

STRATEGIC + LEARNER

Your willingness to embrace new experiences or information enhances your ability to generate a wide range of possible options.

STRATEGIC + IDEATION

When you need to do something or get somewhere, you consider all possibilities. If none seem right, you create a new one.

STRATEGIC + ACHIEVER

If at first you don't succeed, you try again. If you try again and still don't succeed, you consider your options and try one.

STRATEGIC + COMPETITION

Contests can be physical or financial, but your victories are conceptual as you outwit and outguess your opponents.

Apply Your Strategic to Succeed

Think ahead to gain perspective.

- ☐ Take time to fully plan your path forward. While you easily see patterns where others see complexity, it is important to make time to envision these alternative scenarios.
- ☐ Practice explaining your decision-making process before talking with others. Doing this ensures people know you have considered different options and opinions to inform your decision.

STRATEGIC THINKING

3. Ideation®

What Is Ideation?

People with strong Ideation talents are creative and appreciate originality. They relish free-thinking experiences such as brainstorming and discussion groups. They have a natural capacity to consider issues from multiple perspectives. They revel in taking the world we all know and turning it around so people can view it from a strangely enlightening angle. They think outside the box. They are fascinated by new ideas and concepts, which come to them easily. They love ideas because they can be profound, they can be novel, they can be clarifying, they can be contrary, and they can be bizarre. For all of these reasons, they derive a jolt of energy whenever a new idea occurs to them.

Why Your Ideation Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

LearnerStrategic*Ideation*Achiever*Competition

Instinctively, you want people to see you as a winner, as "number one," or as the very best in various activities. Being quite sensitive to what others think of you probably is a powerful motivating force that usually works to your advantage.

Driven by your talents, you intentionally seek out what is new and different. Unexplored territory appeals to your adventurous spirit. You like to test your limits as a human being in travel, work, sports, or thinking. Even when others worry about your well-being, you trust you can take care of yourself.

Because of your strengths, you may experience satisfaction with your life when someone asks you to scrutinize, assess, examine, or evaluate people, processes, plans, or mechanisms.

Chances are good that you occasionally generate novel ideas for campaigns, business ventures, initiatives, or special events.

By nature, you have a rich vocabulary upon which to draw. The words you choose often expand and challenge your listeners' or readers' thinking.

- ☐ Look for different connections and generate new insights when things don't make sense in a certain area. Whereas others might be unsure or unclear about what to do next, you can quickly brainstorm multiple options for consideration.

EXECUTING

4. Achiever®

What Is Achiever?

Achievers have a constant need for attainment. They have an internal fire burning inside them. It pushes them to do and achieve more. People with strong Achiever talents feel as if every day starts at zero. By the end of the day, they must accomplish something meaningful to feel good about themselves. And “every day” means every single day: workdays, weekends, holidays and even vacations. If the day passes without some form of achievement, no matter how small, Achievers feel dissatisfied. After finishing a challenging project, they rarely seek with a reward of a rest or an easy assignment. While they appreciate recognition for past achievements, their motivation lies in striving toward the next goal on the horizon.

Why Your Achiever Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

LearnerStrategic*Ideation*Achiever*Competition

Chances are good that you periodically document goals that can lead you to a future of your own choosing. Perhaps you leave less to chance when you outline your aims and push yourself to reach each one.

Because of your strengths, you occasionally put great effort into conjuring mental images of the future. Perhaps some people lack your ability to envision what will be possible in the coming months, years, or decades. As a result, they may rely on you to do this visioning for them.

It's very likely that you may raise the spirits of people by putting aside what you are doing and giving them your undivided attention. Perhaps you repeat some of the key ideas or questions they voiced, even when it takes some work.

Driven by your talents, you might have more staying power than some of the people with whom you interact. Perhaps you choose to expend your physical or mental energy on selected issues, chores, projects, or activities.

By nature, you might exhibit a strong work ethic. Perhaps work gives your life a sense of purpose it would otherwise lack.

- ☐ Put personal achievements on your scoring system. This will help you direct your busy energy toward family and friends and work.

INFLUENCING

5. Competition®

What Is Competition?

Competition is rooted in comparison. For people with strong Competition talents, their performance is their ultimate yardstick. When they look at the world, they are instinctively aware of other people's performance. They aspire to be the best and will work hard to excel — especially when compared with others. It's not about the effort; it's about the win. Regardless of effort or intention, even if they reach their goal, their achievement will feel hollow if they did not outperform their peers. They need to compare. If they can compare, they can compete, and if they can compete, they can win.

Why Your Competition Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

LearnerStrategic*Ideation*Achiever*Competition

Chances are good that you want many individuals to follow you. You hope they automatically regard you as the person in charge. After your results are compared to the outcomes of others, you want it to be clear to them that you are the very best. This probably is reason enough for them to give you their full allegiance.

It's very likely that you usually know the right time to assist someone who is vying for top honors or the first-place prize.

By nature, you consistently aim to turn in the prize-winning performance. A second- or third-place finish can send you into an emotional tailspin. Your ability to pull out of it depends on your other talents.

Because of your strengths, you usually discover that vying for real and even imaginary first-place victories makes your job or your scholarly pursuits much more exhilarating.
